

Frontline TEACH

Treatment Education Activists Combating HIV

Frontline TEACH is an education program for HIV negative people who want to learn about HIV.

Participants have included partners, family members, friends, AIDS activists, service providers, and community members. We believe AIDS activists have made the world better, and we all can be a part of this movement.

- ◆ Frontline TEACH is a 4 week class

This photo is from 2007, when Project TEACH was in danger of having its funding cut. Activists in the community joined together to save Project TEACH.

Frontline TEACH teaches participants about:
HIV treatment information, ways you can stop the spread of HIV, effective advocacy and activism, communication skills, and more...

Frontline TEACH is a 4 week training program for people who are affected by the HIV pandemic and do not qualify for our Project TEACH or TEACH Outside training programs. Frontline TEACH is for case managers, care outreach specialists, partners, parents, children, care givers, and other community members who are directly impacted by HIV and AIDS in Philadelphia. TEACH stands for Treatment Education Activists Combating HIV. The program is sponsored by Philadelphia FIGHT. The training focuses on treatment and secondary prevention education, advocacy and peer counseling skills.
